KC Molière News!

July 15, 2021

Hello!

Have you heard about the free festivities on Saturday 24 July, 9:00am to 1:00pm, on the grounds of the new François Chouteau and Native American Heritage Fountain in Greenway Park on the southbound side of Chouteau Trafficway?

You have a special reason to attend: it's the premiere of a new inter-cultural comedy by Philip blue owl Hooser. Tartuffenthrope! will be performed there at 11:00 am (30 minutes). You can preview what will be available free of charge for booking into schools starting in August. It's suitable for all grade levels. Come and see what it is and how it can stimulate both laughter and meaningful discussion among your students.

Come on out on 24 July for the fun events sponsored by KC Parks & Recreation and see the show. To reserve a free performance for your school, send an email as indicated on the attachment. You will note also the availability of a Mobile Molière program with limited availability for two weeks only in October. Inquiries are welcome for both shows!

See you Saturday!
